Dear George:

I really appreciated you taking time off from your busy schedule to come brief our boys about the current state-of-the-art USAF™ jets. I thought it took particular courage and dedication for you to go AWOL and even miss your flight status physical to be here. You're just the kind of man we need in our organization.

George, you're going to go far in politics – probably farther than your old man. By the way, remember to give him my regards the next time you see him. Get him to tell you that story about the time we conned the Colonel of Luftstalg 13 out of his cigars. You'll love that story.

Anyway, I just want you to know that we're always happy to see you. We'll be there to help you any time you need it. Just remember us if you need any of those Kikes, Spics, Porch-Monkeys, Boat Niggers, Chinks, or Push-Starts taken care of. You probably want to pay close attention to those goddamned Camel Jockeys, especially the Towel-Heads – sure, they have the right attitude about the Kikes, but they're just as dangerous.

Also remember that (as you know from experience ☺), we're really good at “interrogations.”

Thanks again,

George Lincoln Rockwell
